

Summer Reading Challenge!

Read an old favourite of yours again	Create a 'shelfie' display of your bookshelf/favourite books	Read a poem	Read under a tree
Read in water or by a pool	Read a non-fiction text (magazine, newspaper, blog, autobiography etc)	Read a book that your friend loves	Read a story and invent a sequel to it
Read a story with non-human characters	Read at night with a flashlight	Read a book and then draw a new cover for it	Read to someone else
Read about a place you would love to travel to	Read a book that became a movie	Read in a vehicle (car, plane, train...)	Take a picture of you reading your favourite book somewhere unusual and bring it in

Can you complete the full BINGO sheet and get it signed off by your parent?

The yellow boxes will be taken in and the best examples will be rewarded!

Can you think outside the box?

Here is Miss Humphrey's example for the photograph task on the Bingo sheet... can you beat this photograph with her lovely pooch?

This is one 'Shelfie' example, but feel free to be as creative as you can! What would you class as your ALL TIME favourite books.

What should we all read?

Add colour and make it look as wonderfully enticing as you can!

Prizes will be given across the year to the best Reading Achievements!

Whsmith vouchers, chocolate, sweets...

And many more! Watch this space!

Bring this in and be ready to share in your first English Literature lesson in September!

Good luck! ☺
